THE PEABODY INDEX

TO

MARYLAND DOCUMENTS IN THE STATE
PAPER OFFICE, LONDON.

THIS elaborate MANUSCRIPT was prepared by Mr. Henry Stevens, at the cost and under the direction of Mr. GEORGE PEABODY, who presented it to the Maryland Historical Society as a testimonial of his regard for the State in which he formerly dwelt. The collection is contained in eleven volumes or, solander cases, bound in blue morocco, under lock. There are abstracts and descriptions of one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine documents extending from the year 1626 to 1780, exhibiting a chronological reference to the complete COLONIAL HISTORY OF MARYLAND.

The gentleman who prepared this work states, that he believes it contains an account of every thing at present accessible on this subject in the STATE PAPER OFFICE, though there are still papers in that depository which are unarranged and may contain references to Maryland. There are, also, valuable MANUSCRIPTS relating to our Province in the British Museum, the Bodleian Library, the Society for the propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and elsewhere in England, none of which are described in the present Index.

It may be proper to remark, for the benefit and guidance of those who wish to consult this index for the purpose of obtaining full copies of documents referred to, that every paper is described and its length in folios accurately given. A folio is reckoned in the State Paper Office, as consisting of seventy-two words, and the price of copying is regulated by law, at four pence per folio.

Vol. I.

1626—1685.

Contains an Index to the Documents in the State Paper Office, relating to Sir George Calvert's Colony of Avalon and the Proprietary history of Maryland from 1626 to 1685, among which are many referring to the religion, laws, trade, productions, &c. of Maryland; the wars with the Indians; the disputes of Lord Baltimore with William Claiborne, William Penn, and the Officers of the Customs, Rousby and Badcock; Bacon's Rebellion in Virginia, and the proceedings of the Dutch and Swedes, on Delaware Bay.

Vol. II.

1685—1691.

Contains an index to numerous letters and papers written by persons of both factions concerning the Revolution of 1689 in the province. Also papers concerning the appointment of Sir Lionel Copley, the first Royal Governor after the Revolution.

Vol. III.

1691—1697.

Contains an index to documents regarding the administration of Governors Copley, Andros and Nicholson; the disputes of the first mentioned with the Secretary of the province, and also with the Surveyor General of North America; the establishment of Protestant ministers in Maryland; the trade of the province, and the Quota demanded from Maryland, for the defence of the frontiers of New York against the French and Indians.

Vol. IV.

1697—1699.

Contains an index to papers concerning the proceedings of the Board of Trade; the laws of the province; the piracies in the American seas; addresses from the people of Maryland to the King, and the administration of Governor Blackistone.

Vol. V.

1699—1702.

Contains an index to similar subjects as the preceding.

Vol. VI.

1702—1706.

Contains an index to documents relating to the condition of Maryland during the government of John Seymour; the war with France and Spain; value of foreign coins in America; salaries of the provincial governors, and religion in the province.

Vol. VII.

1706—1711.

Contains an index to papers respecting the population, laws, trade, &c. of Maryland; perquisites of the Secretary's office; boundary line of Maryland, and appointment of Col. Corbet as governor.

Vol. VIII.

1711—1720.

Contains an index to documents concerning the proceedings of President Lloyd; the appointment and administration of Governor Hart; the appointment of Charles Calvert, proprietary governor, and the trade, &c. of the province.

Vol. IX.

1720—1736.

Contains an index to papers referring to the appointment and administrations of Governors Benedict Leonard Calvert and Samuel Ogle; trade, &c. of the province, and the outrages committed against Col. Thomas Cresap and family, by the Sheriff of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Vol. X.

1736—1754.

Contains an index to papers regarding the foreign coins and paper currency in America, boundary line of Maryland; the appointment and administrations of Governors Bladen and Ogle, President Tasker, Governor Sharpe, and the occurrences of the French War.

Vol. XI.

1754—1780.

Contains an interesting compendium of documents relating to the administrations of Governors Sharpe and Eden; the boundary line; the proceedings of the people of Maryland upon the passing and repeal of the Stamp Act and the various other taxes imposed by the British Ministry; communications between the Governor and General Assembly concerning the Acts of Parliament; addresses and petitions of the people to the King; proceedings of the delegates appointed to the Continental Congress; resolutions of the people; proceedings of the Convention of Maryland; the movements in the other colonies, and the battles fought with the British.

THE TOWSON CABINET OF MEDALS AND COINS.

300 B. C.—A. D. 1851.

This fine numismatic collection is comprised in 19 volumes, numbering in all 251 specimens, the larger portion being silver, in fine preservation. The Medals and Coins are firmly set in strong boards, so as to exhibit the obverse and reverse of each through the glasses which cover both sides of the case, and protect the specimens from touch or injury.

The collection was chiefly formed in Europe, by Joel Barlow, minister to France, and author of our American epic, "the Columbiad." At his death it passed to his brother-in-law, the late Col. Bomford, U. S. A., upon whose decease, General Towson, U. S. A. became its owner.

General Towson immediately proceeded, with the assistance of Mr. D. E. Groux, of Washington, who is said to be a very competent Numismatist, to classify and arrange the entire collection, as well as to prepare an ample catalogue raisonné of the whole, which he caused to be printed and presented with the Coins and Medals to the Maryland Historical Society, in March, 1852.

The collection presented by General Towson, is valuable for many separate specimens of great rarity, as well as beauty. It is in truth, a numismatic gallery of many nations and various ages. We may especially notice the very fine medal of Gustavus Adolphus, as an admirable specimen of minute and elegant art. But for historical purposes, the unbroken series of silver medals of French sovereigns and illustrious men, from the Merovingian kings in 420, to the Bourbons in 1793, is, if we may be allowed to discriminate, the most valuable portion of the collection.

Vol. 1.

The original Banner presented to COUNT PULASKI in 1778, by the Moravian Sisters of Bethlehem, in Pennsylvania. When Count Pulaski fell at Savannah in 1779, the banner was saved by his first lieutenant and afterwards delivered to Col. Bentalou, of Baltimore, then a captain in Pulaski's Legion. It was used in the procession which welcomed Lafayette to this city in 1824, and then deposited in Peale's Museum. In 1844, Mr. Edmund Peale presented it to the Maryland Historical Society.

A number of Indian, Mexican, Chinese and other curiosities and relics; together with various specimens of minerals, shells, and other natural productions.

ESTIMATE OF THE
NUMBER OF BOUND VOLUMES IN THE LIBRARY
OF THE MARYLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

THE Library of the Maryland Historical Society contains 2128 bound volumes,—of which 390 are purchases by the Society, and the residue, 1738, donations from U. S. Government, States, associations, and individuals, in this state and elsewhere, who, imbued with the true idea of the end of historical institutions, and believing that they are depositories for every thing that may contribute to the elucidation of past or present events, have done all in their power to increase the collections of the Society.

Of Histories of the States, of Local Histories, of Biographies and Memoirs of distinguished Americans, and of General Histories of the United States and the Americas, there are 730 volumes. Among these are almost all the standard works on American History and Biography, and several very rare and valuable books.

Of Public Documents and Publications by the United States Government there are 605 volumes.

Of Newspapers there are 307 bound volumes, comprising some of the earliest published in Maryland.

There are 56 bound volumes containing 703 Pamphlets, all accurately indexed and catalogued. These pamphlets relate principally to the history of Maryland and the United States, and to political, scientific and literary subjects generally. Among them are some of great rarity and historical importance.

Of works on Universal and European History, Travels and Voyages in the Old World, and Biographies of distinguished English and French, there are 195 volumes.

Of Miscellaneous Works on the Fine Arts, Science, Theology, Law, Literature, &c. there are 230 volumes.

NOTICE

TO MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY, AND TO HISTORICAL STUDENTS GENERALLY.

I. The Assistant Librarian, who is constantly in the Society's Rooms during hours of study, has charge of this Collection under the Library Committee, and is strictly responsible for every article contained in it, as well as for the preservation of its systematic order. He will keep the Manuscripts under lock, in the fire-proof safes.

II. No Manuscript, Medal, Coin, Map, &c. of any character or value, shall be taken, by any one's authority, or for any purpose, from this Society's Hall.

III. To preserve order in the custody and use of the articles comprised in this catalogue, and those which may, hereafter, be added to it, the Assistant Librarian, alone, will find and exhibit any document, work, or matter of interest desired for examination.

IV. The Assistant Librarian is expressly inhibited from allowing any one to inspect or use this Collection, in any other way, or out of his presence.

V. These fundamental rules are not adopted to prevent the legitimate use of the Society's Collection by all who require its aid in the spirit and for the purposes that originated the Institution. The experience of other Societies, in Europe as well as America, has demonstrated the necessity of strict rules and accountability in the guardianship of literary or scientific rarities; and it is for this reason alone, that the Maryland Historical Society offers its pledge to the public and to students, that whatever may be entrusted to its care will be watchfully preserved, at the same time that it is made accessible.
